TOPICS – VISIONARY/STRATEGIC

Stephen J. Cabot has spent most of his adult life in the white-hot arena of management-labor strife. While enormously successful for years as an advocate for his clients' interests in the courtroom and at the bargaining table, he is now convinced that only by forging a “new coalition” with management, workers, and customers will the United States create a new and essential standard for leadership in the 21st century.

Change of this magnitude can come only by radically rethinking the way we do business. As he argues so persuasively and passionately in his best-selling book, EVERYBODY WINS!, this is a moment for trailblazers willing to reshape corporate America, the world's icon of preeminent and innovative business leadership.

Steve Cabot has dedicated his career to creating a more positive work environment as well as changing the character and design of how we do business. He offers his audience a revolutionary yet practical paradigm for prosperity.

TOPICS – MANAGEMENT/LABOR

One of America's truly original thinkers in managing change for the new millennium, Steve Cabot is also a leading expert in the formation and practical application of sound management-labor principles in today's workplace. Invite him to offer his insights on

- dealing with the current trends and strategic goals of organized labor
- how U.S. businesses can thrive in an increasingly competitive world
- taking stock and taking action: building productivity with an energized, empowered workforce
- the power of leadership by example

We invite you to consider Steve Cabot as your next speaker. He is an articulate advocate of economic freedom and responsibility, and audiences rarely leave unmoved or untouched by his words.
